Landowners can benefit from a wide range of options to create their own VR ecosystem and community.

Plots of land being available either as a unique piece, or as Packs, Landowners can group their parcels into a single development area. This, in turn, provides significantly enhanced exposure for their brand, products and services, while creating opportunities for bringing an even more immersive and fully branded experience to every Earniverse users.

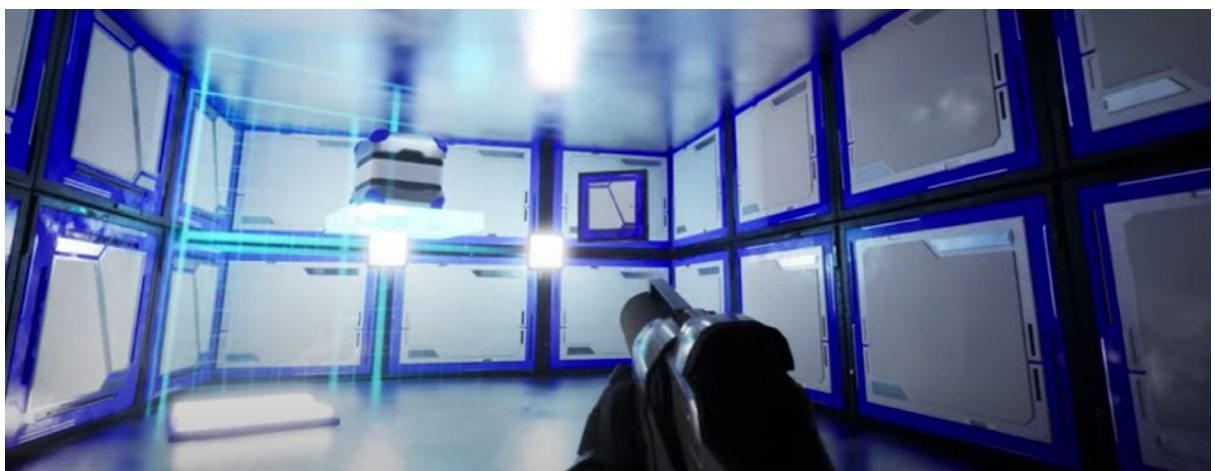

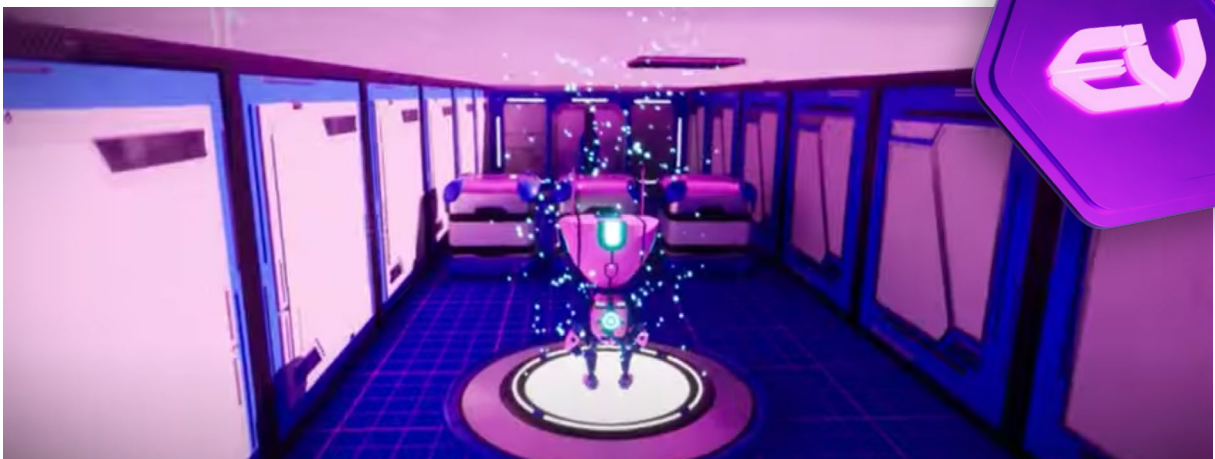

USE YOUR LAND TO BUILD YOUR VR EXPERIENCE

To create, publish or own a VR experience inside Earniverse, publishers must become Landowners of 1 plot of land anywhere on the map minimum.

Depending on their requirements, Landowners, Companies, Game Editors and Publishers can choose any plots of land or private space available in the area that best match their requirements.

Editors & Publishers need to:

- Own a land to upload any 3D Asset on Earnimarket at a ratio of one 3D asset for one parcel.
- Build their land and embed buildings available inside Earniverse catalogue or create their own 3D architecture.
- Embed a VR Experience on their land based on the gameplay structures available for each continent or embed any VR mechanics compatible with the ecosystem.
- Use their land, buildings, and available advertising space to promote their product & services.
To create compatible 3D designs and VR Experiences, refer to Earniverse Teams, Services & Guidelines.

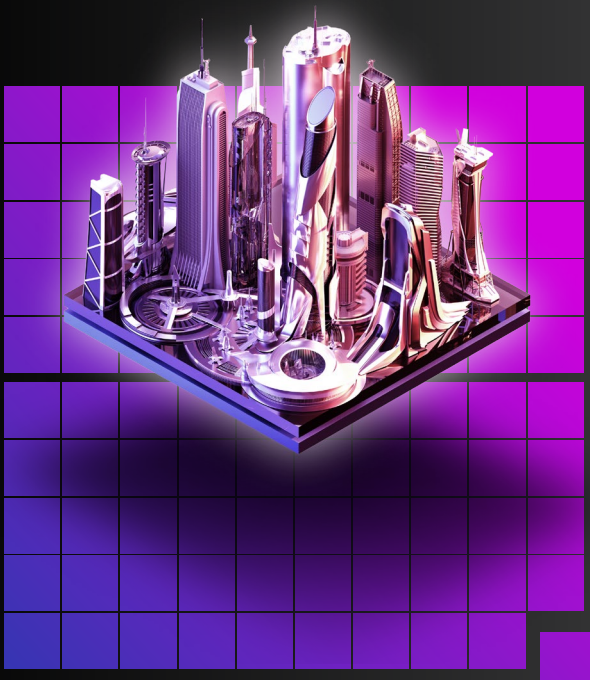

WHAT IS A PARCEL?

Inside Earniverse ecosystem, anyone can own land and use it for real-estate investment, leasing revenues, brand exposure, 3D NFT collections and VR experiences. Each land available is referred to as a parcel.
